We are seeking a compassionate, dependable, and patient Home Support Worker to provide personalized care and daily living support for two seniors in a private residence. The successful candidate will provide companionship, meal preparation, household support, and personal assistance as needed to support clients with different levels of daily living needs. This is a non-live-in position. Responsibilities include helping clients maintain comfort, safety, and quality of life at home.

We offer competitive pay and a respectful, supportive work environment. If you are responsible, caring, and passionate about supporting seniors to live safely and comfortably at home, we would love to hear from you. Please send your CV to mozier129@outlook.com

Job Description

Responsibilities:

• Provide compassionate care, companionship, and emotional support to clients in a private residence.

• Assist with personal care and activities of daily living as needed, while respecting clients' dignity and personal preferences.

• Support clients with mobility and provide additional assistance during periods of illness, fatigue, or reduced mobility.

• Plan, prepare, and serve meals according to clients’ specific dietary requirements and health needs, and assist with feeding when required.

• Accompany clients to medical appointments and other essential outings as needed.

• Provide medication reminders and support clients in following their established daily care routines.

• Observe clients' physical and emotional well-being and promptly report any noticeable changes to family members.

• Maintain a clean, hygienic, and organized home environment by performing light housekeeping duties, including laundry, dishwashing, changing bed linens, vacuuming, and general household cleaning.

• Follow safe caregiving practices to help maintain clients' health and reduce the risk of illness.

Requirements:
• Minimum one year of experience providing care and daily living support for elderly individuals with chronic health conditions in a private home setting is required.
• Previous experience caring for elderly individuals with ongoing health needs in a private home setting is required.
• Experience assisting clients with daily routines, companionship, household support, and preparing meals based on individual dietary requirements and special needs.
• Patient, caring, and respectful when supporting seniors with different needs and personal preferences.
• Good listening and communication skills, with the ability to understand and respond appropriately to clients’ requests and concerns.
• Responsible, reliable, and able to provide consistent care and companionship in a private home environment.
• Ability to maintain a positive attitude and build a trusting relationship with clients and family members.
• Ability to follow established care routines and provide support according to the family’s instructions.
• Valid First Aid and CPR certification.
