About Us

Apan Farm is a growing agricultural operation dedicated to supporting fresh, reliable, and responsible food production. With greenhouse facilities, poultry operations, and a diverse range of farm activities, we take pride in maintaining a hands-on, practical, and community-focused approach to agriculture. Our work requires daily care, attention to detail, and a strong commitment to quality across every part of the farm, from crop cultivation and facility maintenance to animal care and general farm operations. We understand that farming is essential work, and our team plays an important role in helping ensure products are produced, handled, and maintained with consistency and care. As our operations continue to develop, Apan Farm remains committed to building a dependable workforce, improving productivity, and contributing positively to the local agricultural sector.

We are now looking for a Farm Supervisor to join our team, please send your application to careers.apanfarmltd@outlook.com. We do not accept walk-in or phone-call applications.
